

The Daily Courant.

Friday, October 3. 1707.

From the Paris Gazette, dated October 1.

Madrid, Sept. 13.

WE have Advice from Malaga, that a French Frigate, fitted out at Marseilles for a Privateer by M. de Laigle, took the 24th of last Month near Malaga a Galiote of 28 Oars, belonging to the Corsairs of Tetuan, who have taken several Prizes on the Coast of Spain. There were on board her 80 Moors, of whom 20 were kill'd in the Action: the others were made Slaves, and sent to Malaga with the Galiote, whose Colours have been presented to the King. M. de Laigle is put to Sea again with another Vessel fitted out at Toulon, in search of another Galiote, which has been seen in our Seas. The King, to give a publick Testimony of his satisfaction with the signal Services which the Marshal Duke of Berwick has render'd to the Spanish Monarchy, has given the Towns of Liria and Xerica, in the Kingdom of Valencia, with the Title of Duchy; with the Dignity of Grandee of the first Rank to himself and which of his Sons he shall chuse; and to his Descendants. His Majesty has given to the Town Requena the Title of most Noble, most Loyal, and most Faithful, with several other Privileges, in Recognition of the Zeal the Inhabitants have shewn to keep in their Obedience to his Majesty, and of their great Sufferings since the Beginning of the War. The like Distinction has been granted on the same Motives to the Town of Villena, to whose Dependancies the Town of Caudete has been added, with other honourable Prerogatives, proportion'd to the Fidelity which the Inhabitants have shewn on all Occasions. The Regiment of Toledo is given to the Count of Salvatierra, and that of Lombardy to Don Joseph Sotelo. The Bishop, Chapter, and Clergy of Osma has given an extraordinary Gift of 2000 Crowns towards the Expence of the War; and have paid by Advance the Money arising from the Duty call'd Subsidio y Escusado, which amounts to 7000 Pistoles. The Bishop and Chapter of the Cathedral of Leon have likewise made a Present of about 1500 Pistoles, and advanc'd above 5000 in Deduction of Subsidies. The King, in return of the Queen Dowager's Civility, who sent one of her Chief Officers to compliment him on the Birth of the Prince of Asturias, has sent to Bayonne M. d'Aubigni, his own Secretary, and Equerry to the Queen.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Oct. 7.

Madrid, Sept. 20. We have Advice from Cadiz, that the Governor of Ceuta had by his brave Defence oblig'd the Moors to abandon several Works: and that for fear of our Mines, by which above 600 of them have been lately blown up, had put a stop to their Sapping. They write from Oran of the 1st Instant, that the Moors had for several days together been throwing Bombs and Fire-works into the Castle of St Philip, and that they did it with greater Skill and Dexterity than formerly, which makes it believ'd they have some Christian Engineers in their Camp. The Governor of that Fort, Don Dionisio de Canas, and the Garrison, who were resolv'd to defend themselves to the last Extremity, did their utmost to oppose the Barbarians, and have written to Court for Succours: but the Great Master of Malta has assur'd the King, that he will take Care to send the needful Relief into the Place, and oblige the Moors to abandon that Enterprize.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Oct. 8.

From the Imperial Camp near Etlingen Sept. 30. Deserters that came the 26th from the Enemy's Army reported, that they were much concern'd at the Loss they had suffer'd from our Troops under Count Merci, having lost many of their best Horse, and much Baggage and Equipage. M. Villars had no sooner Notice of it, than he sent another Detachment of Horse towards Offenbourg, and 2 Regiments of Foot over the Rhine to Neuburg; but to what End was not known. Part of their expected Reinforcements had joyn'd them, and the rest were near at hand. Artillery, and other Necessaries were getting ready at Strasburg and old Brisac. The 27th, Deserters reported, that some Days before a Party of Germans had advanc'd near Rellingen, and killed 30 Men, but we have yet no Advice of it: but suppose it to have been done by Captain Periasch, who is abroad. A Regiment of Foot of the Upper Rhine is march'd into the Westerwald, to cover that Country from the Enemy's Parties; and the Elector Palatine's Regiment of Linderfeld is to come hither from Manheym. The 28th, 2 Regiments were sent from Philipsburg to reinforce the Garrison of Landau. The 29th, Orders were given out to change our Camp a little by reason of the great Rains. His Electoral Highness observing that many Disorders and Excesses were committed as well in the Camp, as in Foraging, has caus'd to be publish'd throughout the whole Army a new Regulation relating to the Discipline of War, and another to Foraging: and has strictly commanded the Generals, and the Commanders of Regiments to see them obey'd in every Article. This Morning we chang'd our Camp. The Duke of Wirtemberg, with the hereditary Prince, together with his Life-Guards, his Dragoons, and his Regiment of Horse, commanded by Colonel Fagger; has rejoyn'd us from the Black Forest. General Vander-Leyen, and Colonel van Elz have likewise re-inforc'd the Army with 2 Battalions of the Troops of the Elector of Mentz.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Octob. 8.

Frankfort, Octob. 2. The Regiment of Foot of the Hereditary Prince of Wolfenbuttel lies now 2 Leagues from hence; but will soon proceed to the Army on the Upper Rhine. 'Tis said the Duke of Wirtemberg will let the Saxon Troops Winter in his Country; and that the Allies have resolv'd to make new Lines near Etlingen. The Enemy continue to make Excursions into the Territory of Hesse Cassel; and they lately advanc'd so near to Marpurch and Ziegenheim, that the Cannon were fir'd against them. P. S. We hear that the Danish Troops, which are in Bavaria, will also be sent to the Army on the Rhine. 'Tis reported, that the Elector of Hanover will pass this Winter at Mentz; and that the Elector of Mentz has offer'd him the Castle for his Residence.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Oct. 7.

Glogau, Sept. 25. Yesterday all the Swedish Troops pass'd the Oder, on 8 Bridges above and below this Town: They have with them a Train of 78 large, and 122 small Pieces of Cannon. The King of Sweden's Head-Quarter is now at Tschirnaw, 4 Leagues from hence. King Stanislaus is with 18 or 20000 Men near Kalisch. We have Advice from Poland, that the Czar was gone to Breze in Lithuania; that all the Muscovites were retiring in haste out of Poland towards their own Frontiers; and that the Approach of the Swedes had very much chang'd the Opinions of the Polish Lords, many of whom had already quitted the Czar's Interest, and embrac'd the Party of King Stanislaus: 'twas said even that the Army of the Crown was in March to joyn him. When the King of Sweden saw the Ruins of Rawitz and of other Places in the Upper Poland, land, that had been burnt by the Muscovites, and what a vast Extent of Land they had laid waste, his Majesty express'd much Concern at it, and said he would omit nothing to revenge it to the utmost.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Oct. 8.

Dresden, Sept. 30. The Baron of Keller, Envoy from the Landgrave of Hesse having had Audience of King Augustus, is return'd home. He reports, that he was with the King of Sweden at Rawitz, where the whole Swedish Army was: that his Majesty intended so to speed his March, as to be at Warlaw by this day, and was resolv'd to be in the Territories of Muscovy before Winter. The Muscovites retir'd over the Vistula, as soon as they heard the Swedes were come into Poland, in order to draw all their Forces together, and then to take an advantageous Post, where, as they gave out, they would wait for the Swedes. Some Polish Lords advise the Czar to risk a Battle; but others, and among those the Waywood of Belz, to make a Peace.

Warsaw, 23. The 17th, the Czar went to Breze in Lithuania; and Prince Menzikow is reviewing his Troops 4 Leagues from hence. 'Tis believ'd those Troops will move towards Lithuania. The Field-Marshal is gone away dissatisfy'd, because he has not receiv'd the Money which the Muscovites promis'd him. Count Berezeni too takes it very ill, that the Czar would give him only a Publick Audience, thereby shewing that the Business he comes about was not acceptable to him.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Oct. 8.

Hamburg, Oct. 4. They write from Warlaw, that the Hungarian Deputies were sent back from Warlaw with fair Words; and the Czar gave them sufficiently to understand, that he by no means approv'd their Offers of entering into an Alliance with him, and giving the Crown of Hungary to the Prince, his Son. He ask'd them if they had not Sworn Allegiance to King Joseph; and they answering they had; his Majesty without staying to hear what they had more to say, reply'd, that they had then done very ill to take up Arms against him.
